“It was fun and enlightening. I enjoyed being exposed to the different products and info.” - Twin Cities Veg Fest Attendee

Last year's Twin Cities Veg Fest was a huge success. Over 9,000 people attended and we received overwhelmingly positive feedback; the vast majority of the surveyed attendees said they'd come back in 2019! Our sponsors and exhibitors showcased their products and services to college students, young adults, families, and others hungry for veg-friendly products and services. It was a great way to get their message out.
